Renowned harpist Cheryl Ann Fulton presents a program of music for the harp spanning seven centuries, performing on six different historical and Celtic harps from her personal collection.

The music ranges from medieval minstrel dances, to elegant Baroque music from Spain and Italy, to Irish tunes and Welsh Aires. The special beauty of each style of music is highlighted by the particular characteristics of the harp for which it was created.

Numina invites you to experience this special evening—a rare opportunity to see and hear these beautiful instruments played by a world class performer.
